PHILADELPHIA, PA – July 6, 2005 – The Partners of myCIO Wealth Partners LLC, are pleased to announce the opening of their new office location at the Cira Centre in Philadelphia (adjacent to 30th Street Amtrak Station.)

myCIO is a Comprehensive, Independent and Objective (CIO) Financial advisory firm which provides consulting services to over $4 billion of investment assets of Individuals, Families, Endowments, Pensions and Trusts. myCIO was formerly Ernst & Young’s Philadelphia Investment Advisory Practice. myCIO serves as the Chief Investment Officer (CIO) for many of its clients and has a specialty in the Alternative Investment area.

myCIO Wealth Partners was formed as the result of Ernst & Young’s decision to exit the Investment Advisory and Wealth Advisory services as of July 1, 2005 as the result of Sarbanes-Oxley. myCIO is one of the largest completely Independent Wealth Management firms in the country and is Nationally recognized as a leader in Independent Objective advice.

“The continued and steady growth of our client and asset base were the main determinants to the expansion of our footprint in Philadelphia,” says David E. Lees, Senior Partner of myCIO. “We are excited to make a 10 year commitment to the Cira Centre and thankful to our clients who have continued to refer new business to our firm,” comments Jim Biles, Partner of myCIO.

myCIO Wealth Partners now provides Financial Counseling services to over 21 Former and Current Chairman, CEOs and Presidents of Standard & Poors and Fortune 500 Companies.

We have a multi-national client base with clients in California, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Maryland, Massachusetts, Georgia, Indiana, Illinois, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Wyoming, South Carolina, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, the United Kingdom, France and Bermuda.
